Rights Being Waived

- I have a right to a hearing before the court on whether the Department's request should be granted.
- I have a right to be represented by an attorney and, if I cannot afford an attorney, one will be appointed for me.
- At a hearing, the Department would have to show that I have the ability to pay and that an extension will further my rehabilitation as well as the interests of the community.
- If I waive these rights, the court can enter an order extending my probation or enter a judgment against me.
